Section 5. Quorum. A quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting or any Membership Meeting will be defined as a majority of those Affiliate members present.

ARTICLE V – COMMITTEES

The President shall, with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint such standing and special committees among the Affiliate Members as may be necessary.

ARTICLE VI - ELECTION OF OFFICERS

~~AThe Nominating Committee shall beis composed of the current Affiliate Officers. Each year, and two past presidents appointed by the Nominating Committee shall, by majority vote, publish a slate of officer candidates (for the positions of President, President Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer) at least 15.~~

~~Beginning 90 days prior tobefore the Annual Meeting. Each year beginning in May, the names of individuals interested in serving will be accepted by as an officer will be submitted to the Nominating Committee for consideration as a candidate. At least 15 days before the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee for consideration on the will, by a majority vote, deliver a slate of officer candidates for publication.~~

~~All members will be notified of the Election with the slate of officer candidates. All individuals considered for the slate of officer candidates will at least 10 days before the Annual Meeting. The Election of Officers will occur at the Annual Meeting, and all votes will be cast in person. Additional candidates may be placed in nomination by members in attendance. The officer candidate does not need to be in attendance to be elected; however, all officer candidates must be active participants in Affiliate Council meetings and activities.~~

- ~~a. The Nominating Committee will automatically advance the current Secretary to the position of President Elect, and the current President Elect to the position of President, unless a majority of the Nominating Committee votes to advance an alternate slate of officer candidates.~~
- ~~b. The Treasurer will automatically be nominated for reelection unless a majority of the Nominating Committee votes to replace the Treasurer on the slate of officer candidates.~~

~~At the annual meeting, the slate of officer candidates will be presented, additional officer nominations will be solicited from the floor, discussion will take place, and the new Officers will be elected, or re-elected.~~

~~The Nominating Committee, by a majority vote, will fill any vacant officer positions until the next election.~~

~~At the Annual Meeting, the Chair will read the slate of candidates brought forward by the Nominating Committee. Officers will be elected, one office at a time, in the order of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. For each office, the Chair will open the floor for additional nominations. Members present may nominate one additional name per office; nominations do not require a second. All members in attendance will have the opportunity to make a nomination before nominations for that office are closed by the Chair. If the ballot contains more than one candidate, discussion about the candidates will be allowed, followed by a ballot vote. When one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, that individual will be declared elected. If multiple candidates are on the ballot, the candidates receiving a majority of the votes will move forward to a subsequent ballot until one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast. If the ballot is uncontested, the balloting will be deemed unnecessary, and the candidate for that office will be declared elected with no further action required. This process then repeats for each office.~~
