

2015 LAST CHANCE CE

“Go Forth and Sin No More”

#0497R | 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Designed to meet the NAR Quadrennial Code of Ethics training requirements this course is Ethics as only Trista can teach it. Examining how the NAR Code of Ethics intersects with state and federal law, this course provides a new perspective on the Code and risk management in the practice of real estate. Providing adequate time for class participation and discussion this course asks “what would you do?” and applies the answers to current case studies and examples.

“Get Your Geek On”

#0365 | 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

As the practice of real estate becomes a more digital experience, it's important that practitioners understand and manage the risks associated with “going digital.” This course will also address the increased potential for real estate professionals to run afoul of the laws regulating intellectual property in the United States. This course identifies situations where violations are becoming increasingly common and with student participation develops risk reduction techniques for every practitioner regardless of their tech savvy.

Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions to RPAC are voluntary and are used for political purposes. The amounts indicated are merely guidelines and you may contribute more or less than the suggested amounts. The National Association of REALTORS® and its state and local associations will not favor or disadvantage any member because of the amount contributed or decision not to contribute. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal. 85% of each contribution is used by your state RPAC to support state and local political candidates; 15% is sent to National RPAC to support federal candidates and is charged against your limits under 52 U.S.C. 30116.

Trista
Curzydlo

With the knowledge you expect from an attorney and the sense of humor you wish your attorney had, Trista brings a fresh perspective to teaching continuing education classes for real estate licensees. Her career as an attorney both in the courtroom and the Statehouse provides her with a strong grasp on the “why” behind difficult legal topics while her experience as Government Affairs Director and Legal Counsel for a REALTORS® Association allows her to provide the “how” for risk management in a manner that everyone can grasp and enjoy.
